

TODAY ONLY

STANFORD

DOUBLE HEADLINE VAUDEVILLE BILL

EVANS & MAYER

The Famous Brunswick Artists Offering
"THE COWBOY AND THE GIRL"

"THE SIX SUB DEBS"

Six Beautiful Talented Girls Singing and Dancing Their Way into Your Heart

DUEL &amp; BLOOM "COMEDY FUNSTERS" YOU'LL ROAR	JUGGLING DAVIES TALENTED JUGGLING AND HOW!!
--	---

A Talking Picture

See and Hear
GLENN TRYON
in this Comedy—
He's Foppier and Funnier
than Ever.

—On the Screen—
GLENN TRYON
SUE CAROL
—in—
"IT CAN BE DONE"

A Talking Picture

See and Hear
SUE CAROL
America's Sweetheart
Do Her Stuff in this Hot of Fun.

Palo Alto Times
June 29, 1929

The team of Edith Evans and Ray Mayer appeared on stage at the Stanford Theatre on June 29, 1929, as part of the regular weekly vaudeville program. They performed a skit called "The Cowboy and the Girl." This very same act was filmed by Vitaphone in 1928, and has been restored by the UCLA Film Archive.